ASSAULTED IN HIS BARN.

Dorman N. Davidson Has an Encounter with Another Intruder.

Dorman N. Davidson had another encounter last night with an intruder in his barn, in the rear of his residence, 424 Broadway. Several weeks ago Mr. Davidson had a similar experience in the same barn, and after grappling with his assailant and struggling on the floor he was un-ble to hold him till help came. The man, who was a negro, escaped down the alley. A few minutes after 6 o'clock last night Mr. Davidson put his horse in its stall and climbed up the ladder to the loft above to throw hay down to the horse. Just as he reached the top of the ladder a man, who was waiting on the edge of the mow, attempted to fell Mr. Davidson with some heavy weapon, but the blow which was aimed at Mr. Davidson's head glanced and dashed his lantern to the ground. The shock threw Mr. Davidson to the ground, and his arm and leg were severely bruised. The intruder escaped through a window in Burglars at Another Drug Store. It was learned yesterday that some time during Friday night the drug store of the Navin Brothers, at Illinois and North streets, was entered by burglars. When the store was opened yesterday morning it was found that things were in great dis-order. Goods had been carried from the shelves back to the rear behind the pre-scription case, and it appeared that the burglars had spent some time in selecting the most valuable articles as their booty. The money drawer was also behind the prescription case. Strangely, however, nothing was taken so far as could be discovered. About $5 in money was lying on the counter. It is believed that the burg-lars were frightened away and feared to take anything lest it should be found in their possession should they be caught.

THE MAGIC NAME RELEASED MANY WORKHOUSE PRISONERS.

All that Seems Necessary Is to Tell Judge Cox that a Prisoner Will Vote the Popocratic Ticket.

The customaly tactics with reference to the release of workhouse prisoners who are politically favorable to the party at the polls are now in operation. The released prisoners are all Democrats. The following prisoners have been released since Oct. 8, and all are Democrats: John Banks, white, confined Oct. 2 for carrying concealed weapons; sentence, sixty days; remitted Oct. 8. Sandy Jones, colored, confined Oct. 6 for lottering; sentence, thirty days; remitted Oct. 19. Charles Collins, white, confined Oct. 7 for trespass; they are sending it. sentence, forty-five days; remitted Oct. 15. John Walker, white, confined Oct. 8 for assault and battery; sentence, thirty-five days; remitted same day. William Boyd, colored, confined Oct. 9 for loltering; sentence, sixty-five days; remitted Oct. 13. Fred Rowell, white, confined Oct. 13 for immorality; sentence, thirty-four days; remitted Oct. 14. Frank Tillman and Thomas Charles, white, same charge, confined Oct. 14; sentence, twenty-one days; remitted

These prisoners have all been released by Judge Cox and are known to be of Democratic persuasion. William Shields, colored, was confined Oct. 19 for drawing a deadly weapon. His wife called on Mayor Taggart yesterday morning and asked that her husband be released, stating that he was a strong Democrat. The Mayor told her to interview Judge Cox. She did so, and her husband, who was sentenced to 140 days' confinement, will be released Mon-

Yesterday afternoon, while a Journal reporter was looking over the records at the workhouse, a Warren township farmer arworkhouse, a warren township farmer arrived with a release from Judge Cox for Henry Bannen, who was sentenced on Oct. 20 for eleven days for drunkenness. The farmer stated that Bannen was a Democrat and lived in Warren township. The Democrats there had figured out that as he would have served out his sentence the day before election day he might not get to his home in time to vote, and not want ing to take any chances, had delegated this farmer to go to Judge Cox and secure Bannen's release. It was secured without trouble. The word "Democrat" is the open sesame, and Bannen walked forth yesterday a free man.

It has been noted at the workhouse that for some time past when colored and Irish prisoners were brought in, no matter what the offenses, the Ceitic prisoners had short sentences, which would expire before election day, while the colored prisoners, who are generally Republicans, invariably had sentences which would last until after elec-tion day. Assault and battery is a common charge for colored prisoners, and where a month ago they would have received about lifteen days' sentence, they now get forty days. A Republican prisoner has not yet been released from the workhouse. P. J. Lawis, a colored Republican, who was arested for assault and battery, which was shown in the trial to have been provoked and in itself trivial, is now serving a sentence of 105 days, which will not expire until after the election. He is a well-known colored Republican. Moses McFaren is another colored Republican arrested for a small case of assault and battery, and his time is fifty-three days. He will miss his

Yesterday Fred Kennedy and Fred Willams, both colored, were tried in Police Court for assault and battery and each was sentenced fifteen days, which slight sen-tences will suffice to deprive them of their votes. Recently a colored prisoner's re-lease was secured by a man living on South lilinois street. The man stated to Judge Cox and Mayor Taggart that the prisoner was a thoroughbred Democret e.d. be-sides, he wanted to hire atm to ork for The prisoner was releas quent as Nov. 3 approaches.

Louis Schaler, nicknamed dadge Stubbs' by fellow-members of the "Boo-gang." on by fellow-members of the "Boo-gang." on account of the fact that he walks on two wooden legs, and two or three members of or two of these men are permitted to come the "Boo-gang," went in Bane's saloon, at Georgia and Nobie stars, last night. They wanted drinks without paying for them, and were ejected from the place. The disturbance they raised attracted considerable attention. Schaler was arrested.

Young Woman Charged with Larceny. Lillie Cody, twenty-one years old, of No. 82 Fort Wayne avenue, was arrested by patroiman Moore last evening on a charge of petit larceny. The theft is alleged to have taken place in a clouk house at No. 39 East Washington street. Two women were seen leaving the store and one of them dropped a valuable cloak. The employes of the store claim that Lillie Cody was the one.

She denies the charge. Rev. Mr. Coyle Cannot Come. A telegram has been received by the Tabernacle Church from Rev. R. F. Coyle, of Oakland, Cal., declining to accept its call. Rev. CYCLE PARADE PRIZES

WHEELMEN WILL HAVE A BIG PART IN THE DEMONSTRATION.

A Popocratic Trick to Get Information from Republicans Exposed-Taggart's Experience.

The McKinley and Hobart bicycle parade in the big Republican demonstration next Saturday night in itself will be the biggest event of its kind ever seen in Indianapolis. Assurances have been receved that the line of wheelmen will be a long one. There will be a meeting of the wheelmen Tuesday night, at which plans for the parade will be perfected, and men will also be appointed for ward duty on election day. Those desiring to serve in this capacity will report to Adjutant Richards at the meeting. For the Saturday night parade the followng prizes for wheelmen have been of-

A POPOCRATIC TRICK.

Scheme to Get Information from Republican Committeemen. Isaac M. Best, of Walcott, Ind., yesterday forwarded to the Republican State committee a letter which is presumed to be a trick, and a very gauzy one, on the part of the Popocratic managers, to get some definite information from Republican committeemen. The letter, which is addressed to Mr. Best and purports to come from "The Gold-standard Club of Indianapolis," is as follows:

"In the coming political struggle much depends upon prompt, earnest and efficient work. We believe you will put forth your utmost efforts to carry your township for McKinley, and to that end we are prepared McKinley, and to that end to lend you valuable assistance. The voters who must receive our closest attention are, weak-kneed or undecided Republicans and Democrats; thirdly, the Republicans who have gone over to the free-silver craze. The gold Democrats must be held in line, the weak-kneed Republicans and Democrats must be won for McKinley, and if possible, bring back into our ranks the free-silver Republicans. We have prepared and arranged a system of literature especially suited to these several classes. We ask arranged a system of literature especially suited to these several classes. We ask you to go to work promptly but quietly and arrange the voters of your precinct under the following heads: 'Palmer Democrats,' 'Undecided Democrats,' 'Undecided Republicans,' 'Free-silver Republicans,' "Send us this list as soon as possible, and we will supply them with literature. Remember victory demands prompt, energetic member victory demands prompt, energetic and quiet work."

This is signed by E. P. Rothoen, of Indianapolis. Nothing is known of this man Rothoen at either the Republican head-quarters or the National Democratic head-quarters, and there is no such organization Indianapolis as the Gold-standard Club. Republican precinct committeemen were long ago warned against any such efforts, and it is not likely that they will send any information unless they know to whom

THAT CHICAGO CIRCULAR.

President Compers Says Politicians Cannot Incite a Strike. It was asserted yesterday afternoon by President Gompers and Secretary Mc-Craith that the executive council of the American Federation of Labor adjourned in perfect harmony, and a good feeling existed between all the seven members. They accounted for the sessions behind closed doors Thursday and Friday by saying that the committees were simply delivering reports which were to be submitted after the adjournment of the council and that there had been no wrangle whatever. President Gompers admitted that during the proceed-ings of the council there had been several spirited discussions upon points which had come up in the transaction of the business, but they contained no personal feeling and were simply the clashing of opinions on different points. He said he had no desire to restrain any of the proceedings from the newspapers. Secretary McCraith, however, has a nurtured dislike for the press, and would say nothing regarding the sessions other than that were no wrangles. When President Gompers was asked regarding the report published by the Chica-go Record that a circular had been issued by the managers of the Popocratic national campaign for the purpose of inciting a general strike among the workingmen, he said: "I will simply state that there are no politicians of any stripe who are capable f inciting strikes among organized labor in this country, neither are there any po-litical parties who can stop a strike when in progress. The laboring men of this country would not form a strike for politi-cal reasons; they would take recourse for the bettering of their conditions only through the regular recognized channels of their unions." Taggart Arouses Their Wrath. Two or three days' work by Thomas Taggart at the Popocratic county committee rooms has created a vast disturbance among the small-fry leaders of the "push." Up to date Bridges, Stuart, Smith Myers and that crowd have had things their own way around the county committee, and they were impressed with the belief that they were going to carry Marion county with a whoop, not because they had any reason to think so, but on the theory that the people were coming their way. When Mr. Taggart, early last week, began to take hold of matters a little he found a disorganized state of affairs and has been endeavoring ever since to gather up the pieces and straighten things out. His interference has aroused the jealous wrath of the leaders of the "push." They want to carry this election without him and demonstrate that "there are other pebbles on the beach that would make as great a splash" as he in Marion county politics.

"If we lose Marion county," said one of the radical silver leaders yesterday, "It will be on account of the uncalled-for interference at this late day of men who think they are the only things that ever hap-pened in politics. They have been loafing about the Grand Hotel while we have been out hustling in the precincts during the last two months, and now they want, to come in and claim the glory for what we in and fill our organization with suspicion there is no telling what the result will be. They claim that we have to come to them to get money. Well, we've been getting along without money so far, and I guess we can continue to do it." In view of the warmth of feeling his presence about the committee rooms has aroused. Mr. Taggart stayed away yesteraroused. Mr. Taggart stayed away yesterday, and instead of going up to the rooms to boss Chairman Rochford he remained at the Grand Hotel, where Rochford met him at noon and had a conference with him. Whether the gentleman quoted was referring to Taggart alone or to John W. Hotzman and Judge Ayres, two more sound-money Democrats who have shown a disposition to take hold of things in the county committee, he did not state.

The Mckinley Encampment Friday. All the arrangements have been completed for the State Encampment of Mc-Kinley Camp of Soldiers, Sallors and their Sons, to be held in this city next Friday. At 10 o'clock in the morning the encampment will meet at Tomlinson Hall. At 2 o'clock there will be an open meeting, addressed by General John Coburn, Rev. D.

Lucas and son of a soldier, Frank S. Martin, At 7:30 p. m. an open meeting will be held in English's Opera House, ad-dressed by J. A. Mount, Republican candi-date for Governor, and General Lew Wal-lace. Rates have been obtained on all the roads, one-half fare for the round trip, and in delegations of two hundred, one cent a

There will be a meeting of the Headquarters Camp this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at 18 and 20 North Meridian street, to complete arrangements and appoint delegates. All soldiers and their sons of Indianapolis are expected to be present.

Election Returns by Telephone. The "Long-distance" and Central Union Telephone Companies are arranging to furnish complimentary to their subscribers in this city the general election returns from all over the country on the night of Nov. 3. All desiring inis service are asked to notify Manager Walker L. Hill, of the Central Union company, not later than Wednesday morning, Oct. 28, that necessary preparations may be made. Those receiving these returns will be expected to dispense with local exchange telephone service during that evening and night, and only use their telephone for receiving the returns. Whentelephone for receiving the returns. Whenever returns are to be given out the sub-scribers will be notified by two distinct rings of their bells, after which the re-turns will be immediately read twice. A further repetition of same will not be made. Mr. Hill's telephone is No. 1.

B. and L. Insurance Men. The insurance and building and loan association men have organized a McKinley and Hobart marching club, to take part in the big Republican demonstration next Saturday night. Over two hundred men en-gaged in these line of business have signed the roll. Another meeting will be held Tuesday evening at the Criminal Court room to perfect the organization. All the building and loan and insurance men have been invited to be present at this meeting. Officers will be elected then.

Daily Bulletin on Smith's Views. Last evening Oscar Henderson and A. G. Smith were lingering in the vicinity of the sound-money Democratic meeting at English's, when Nathan Morris came along sind greeted them. "Hello, Green," he said, shaking hands with Mr. Smith. "I haven't seen you since yesterday. What are your political views now?" Even Oscar Henderson, who is in a somewhat similar boat, had to laugh at the sharpness of the

Had to Charter an Engine. Representative Faris, of Terra Haute, had an engagement to speak at a big rally at Brownsburg yesterday, but on account of a small wreck west of Greencastle he was delayed. He came to this city and, securing an engine and car, reached Brownsburg by 3 o'clock in the afternoon, finding the blg crowd still waiting for Another Committeeman Quits.

Thomas Barnaby, a Popocratic committeeman for the Second precinct of the Fifth ward, has resigned, and Dennis Sullivan, a saloon keeper, has been appointed to his place. The resignation, it is said, was re-quested by Chairman Rochford for the reason that Barnaby was getting sound-money ideas.

He Lost the Ticket. The National party, one of the Prohibition wings, intended to have a ticket in the field in this county, but William F. Clerk lost the petition necessary to get the ticket on the ballot, and the Nationals will have to vote one of the old party tickets.

Con Calahan, vice president of the Palmer and Buckner Club, which has its headquarters at 204 Bates street, stated at the Journal office last night that the report that politics was infiated at the club headquar-ters yesterday by kegs of beer is entirely false. Said he: "No members of the Ninth Ward Palmer and Buckner Club took part n any such demonstration. Another thing, said that there are emigrants wh have been in this country only two or thre years who are committeemen in the N ward, and that statement is also false."

Street, Stopped and Robbed. W. F. Wishmeyer, of 610 East Vermont street, was held up and robbed by three men on the railroad track, near the corner of Ohio and Pine streets, last night. He was returning from work at about 6:30 o'clock, when three men stopped him and asked for a match. He was feeling in his pocket to accommodate them, when one of them stuck a pistol in his face and de-manded his money. He had only $1.75, but they took this. He says they were roughly dressed and had the appearance of tramps.

Pearson & Wetzel Resume Business. Pearson & Wetzel, whose place of business was recently destroyed by fire, have leased the building at 120 and 122 South Meridian street, where they will conduct their wholesale queensware business. The entire old stock was turned over to the insurance companies, who have sold it to the salvage companies. The firm will purchase an entirely new stock. Its loss from fire and water amounts to $63,000, and its Christmas trade has been somewhat cripoled. Most of the old building will be lown, as it has been condemned by the building inspector.

Omer B. Carr's Sudden Death. Omer B. Carr, a resident of the city for thirty-three years, died yesterday morning at his residence, No. 169 North Illinois street. He arose apparently in unusually good health. A short time after eating a hearty breakfast he was found on the floor unconscious. Being carried to his bedroom, he lingered without regaining consciousness until I o'clock, when he passed away, apoplexy being the cause of death. He leaves a wife and parents, all well known in the city.

The Sweetest Story Ever Told And the one that was appreciated most was published recently by Carrie Ashley Clarke, in which she tells the secret of her great beauty. She says: "My complexion is better than it has been for years, due to the use of Haag's Liver Pills. They also cured me of bloating after my meals." Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan, of 158 Senate avenue, North, Indianapods, Ind., says: "I feel so grateful for benefits derived from the use of Haag's Liver Pills I am prompted to give expression thereto, and would advise persons suffering from liver trouble to use the remedy in question. I do not want to be without them." The many cures of sick headache, biliousness, indigestion and kid-ney troubles made by this new pill has cre-ated such a large demand that it is now on sale by 152 druggists of Indianapolis and suburbs, and in hundreds of stores in other cities. Julius A. Haag, the Denison House chemist, who makes the above pill, has discovered and is now offering to the public a new medicine for coids, malaria, grip, in-fluenza and fever, that gives relief in half an hour, and cures a bad cold in a day. This medicine is put up in yellow boxes, and known as Haag's Cold and Fever Capsnies. The dose is two capsules every three hours and three at bedtime until cured. It is always best to take a good liver medi-cine in connection with the Cold and Fever Capsules; for this reason persons should take a dose of Haag's Liver Pills at bed-
